Skill breakdown

You answered each of the skill statements on a scale from totally disagree to totally agree degree. Have a look at the skill breakdown to see how the results in the skill areas have been aggregated from your individual answers.

[For each of the skills clusters, first the mean for the whole cluster is shown. After that, for each individual item, their score is shown.]

In the next step, you can download the full report for later use. For example, when you'd like to use the skill statements you answered most confidently as inspiration when you need to describe your strengths in your resume or in an application letter.
