Under these terms, every item* must carry an acknowledgement and the Creative Commons logo and link to the license and supplementary information:

*"Every item" means that every individual printed item must display the logo and license text. So all cards, as well as any supporting materials, must show this license information. For digital materials, such as PowerPoint presentations, the license logo and text should (at least) appear on the first page of the presentation. You can also add this license information to further pages – such as the final page, to remind people of the license agreement and where to download the materials from.

This license lets you remix, tweak and build upon your work non-commercially, providing you credit all authors and license your new creations under the identical terms. Version 4.0 of the Creative Commons license requires you to indicate if changes were made. Please use the following logo, text and links on all derivative works:
